

The Right One (Friends Book 4)

Rebecca Wallace swore off grown-up romances when she caught her boyfriend with another woman on the white leather sofa she'd picked out for his office. One Fanta-stained couch later, she's still struggling with the gap he left in her life when she meets Elliot. Elliot stumbles into Rebecca's life and house when she leaves the front door open one drunken night. He introduces her to the joy of bacon sandwiches and offers the promise of a casual relationship. When Elliot spends a lot of time away, it's not only the bacon Rebecca craves. He returns, revealing a secret which will change both their lives forever. ***Warning*** This book has been known to cause bacon cravings.
