

A Perfect Arrangement (Redemption Cove Book 2)

When lifes a bitch, slap her back. Mackenzie Andrews is having a bad day. Shes lost her job at a Chicago interior design firm, her roommate kicked her out in favor of a fiances company and now her sports car is in a snowy ditch in the middle of nowhere. Lucas Brown, a victim of the financial sector collapse, has turned to carpentry for a living, but his favorite hobby is trying to fix people. Grounded by an unwavering sense of optimism, when he meets Mackenzie, he starts to think of a future, which means telling his ex to take a permanent hike. Dirk Jennings has seen too many horrible things in lifefirst in Afghanistan then as an EMT on the mean streets of Chicago. Hes not a touchy-feely guy, but after rescuing Mackenzie from her snowy wreck, he wouldnt mind an occasional round of sex. While the town of Redemption Cove caters to the menage a trois lifestyle, the three lost souls thrown together by circumstance arent sure such a situation will work, but none of them can deny the desire and need swirling between them. With a little understanding they might just stumble upon a perfect arrangement.

(2) That in whatever circumstances we are placed, we should place the most implicit confidence in God. In him I trust, and he it is that keeps my mind in perfect peace.
