

A split-second and a single shot... In a single second, Max triggers a chain of events that puts a wedge between his best friend, Jesse, and their lover, Mally. But when this former Russian mob member's loved ones are threatened, Max has to make a show of strength. He can't allow anyone to exploit his and Jesse's weakness for Mally. And Mally can't be hurt if she's no longer theirs. Separated from Max and Jesse, Mally is lonely, hurt and angry but she's not ready to give up on her relationship with her two men. She'll make them understand that they're safer together. And that she's much tougher than they realize. But she'll need help from a few women who know what she's dealing with. Mally's not going to release her men from their arrangement until she gets exactly what she wants. But do her men want the same happily ever after?
