

Jacob must keep romance out of the playroom, but Vivienne has a way of making him break the rules. Will one intimate kiss steal Vivienne's heart? With a brash move, Vivienne defies Jacob. She craves their sexual intimacy, but wants more. "Vivienne couldn't help but wonder about Jacob. The arrangement he'd set up was convenient for him. He had the playroom, ready and waiting, with the woman of his choice ready to do his bidding. Was she really blind? Had her infatuation clouded her judgment? But then Vivienne recalled how it felt to be with Jacob, the way he treated her, and the excitement that flooded her in his presence. He was the man for her. She was sure about that. The relationship was challenging, but that didn't stop her from wanting Jacob as much as she wanted her next breath." Jacob is the only man for her, even if she can't understand him.
