

Katarina (Ghosts of River Oaks Book 2)

Three psychic sisters taken from their abusive mother as children reunite at their grandmothers funeral. They inherit the family fortune, including the old mansion on the river in Florida. The estate called River Oaks is haunted by the ghosts of ancestors and family slaves. Katarina, a teacher, lived on a ranch in Arizona. Her sisters and Boone Callahan, her grandmothers attorney, help her through an unexpected pregnancy. Kat is attracted to Boone, but he keeps his distance until a boy shows up in his office claiming Boone is his father. Dannys mother has been murdered, and Boone is afraid the killers will come after the boy. Boone hides Danny at River Oaks. While theyre there, Kat seduces Boone. Their affair grows into love, but he hates that she talks with ghosts and always seems to know what hes thinking. And then the killers show up and try to take Danny.
