That's exactly what Julie is about to find out, now that her world has been turned upside down. She'd been afraid for awhile that her husband was hiding something, but in her wildest dreams, she never could have imagined what was really going on. Every time she thinks she can't handle anything else, something else is exposed -- and it's all downright terrifying. Julie thought her Army husband was the only one who worked hard in the trenches. She never guessed she'd be pulled down into them to fight a war of her own. Who can she trust? Where will she turn? Will she ever be able to pull herself out of the trenches she's been forced into?
