

Breaking Free: Transforming Your Life Through the Magic of Affirmations

In her twenties, Jane Rogers suffered with an eating disorder, and by her early thirties she was unsettled by a chain of failed relationships. She realized that these troubles stemmed from negative beliefs about herself and turned to affirmations to change them. Believing she created her own reality, Rogers was dismayed by her lack of success. When she corrected her attitude, from being responsible for events to responding to them, she began to experience positive results. In Breaking Free, Jane Rogers presents a step-by-step manual on identifying and changing beliefs and positively responding to life's challenges.
