

***Fans of Hopeless and Safe Haven will fall in love with the debut novel from London Casey*** HURT LIKE HELL Tessa Belle barely escaped her fathers abusive hands ten years ago, when she was just thirteen. On her own now, in her own apartment, she tells herself its time to start living. Her dating life has been lackluster as no boy or man could ever love her or protect her the way Jack Smithen had. After all these years, she can still picture his face that fateful night. When her deadly past comes crashing into the present, she feels too alone to do anything. Thats when her long lost love, Jack, appears - literally - and takes hold of her life, and her heart. Its been ten years since their first kiss, ten years since their lives were changed forever. But now theyre together again, adults now, able to help each other, able to love each other openly. Jacks the only person who understands what Tessa endured, because Jack endured the same from his own abusive mother. Just when it feels they can share the life they always dreamed, Tessas father is released early from prison. His sole mission is to finish what he started that night in their basement ten years ago... Hand in hand, Tessa and Jack prepare to face Tessas father one last time... but this time, can they both make it out alive?__Visit London Casey here - www.LondonCasey.wordpress.com And dont miss the mindblowing series, THE BOYS OF DOWNCRASH.
