

Now, a few ground rules before we get started. First, you call me Sir. Second, you do as I say without arguments or questions. Third, I need you to be available 24/7. Give me your cell number and your home number. Billionaire CEO Conrad White is an enigmatic, tragic figure. After he lost his family in a terrible accident at a young age, he withdrew from society, focusing completely on building a business empire that now rivals any other. Annette Black is a lowly loss-adjuster, just one among thousands of employees in White Industries. She works hard and keeps her head down. But that's all about to change... She's summoned one day - summoned to see Conrad White, and he has a proposition for her. A proposition that will alter the courses of both their lives, forever... Conrad demands complete obedience from his employees. But how far will Annette go to please her new boss? And what will happen if she refuses to submit to his increasingly intimate demands?
