

Kisses to Remember

Graphic designer Johanna Ware knows family is the most important part of life. Her son, Kameron, is her world after losing her daughter and husband. She hides away on her Nebraska farm, wishing for adventure but settling for responsibility. Corporate pilot Holden Lancaster is ready to fly for Donovan Electronics at a moment's notice. When he isn't in the air, he's at his Texas home remodeling old cars to race and sell. He enjoys the speed of his life but not the solitude. When Holden discovers shady dealings at Donovan Electronics, an attempt on his life leaves him with amnesia in a crashed plane in Johanna's field. With no memory of family or friends and a company who denies employing him, Holden is placed in Johanna's care. Will Johanna regret opening her world to this sexy stranger? Will Holden remember a life that makes it impossible for him to be with Johanna? Or is love enough to make them forget everything but each other?
