

Lost and Found (Desert Secrets Book 3)

Lisa Palmer has kept her secrets well-hidden from her friends in her small desert town. Now with the arrival of a very handsome stranger, those secrets are threatened to be exposed, sending her already shaky world into a tailspin of disaster. Seth Brite needs to get the last of the details to finish his next true crime book. He has put way too much time and money into the process to give up on the project now. When the convicted murderer refuses to give Seth any information, Seth heads to the only place he has left—Wilson, Arizona. He's determined to learn anything he can from the only person who might possibly have the information, Lisa Palmer.

Seth isn't the only person wanting to get close to Lisa. When the murderer is out on parole, he decides it's time to get reacquainted with Lisa. When someone ends up dead in Wilson, who will they blame? How long will Lisa be able to keep her secret? And will she be able to keep her heart out of the hands of Seth Brite?
