

Miss You Mad: a psychological romance novel

From the author of Theta Waves and Vampire Addictions A psychological thriller novel that will curl your toes and chill your spine. Sometimes the will to live has strings attached Billionaire bachelors should be pumped on life; they should be jazzed just to be breathing, and yet newly-wealthy lobster-buyer Daniel is just plain sick of living. Philanthropy hasn't juiced him, wealth hasn't juiced him; Hell; sex and hedonism haven't juiced him. He's beginning to think he's incapable of feeling anything anymore. Then he meets the intriguing Hannah who is a visual artist from the big city and everything seems to swirl into living color like gasoline on water. He feels so alive he imagines he'll ignite at any moment. If she says she just barely escaped a psychotic stalker back in Toronto, and that small town Nova Scotia is the furthest, most inconvenient location for her fan to follow, well, he believes her. There shouldn't be anything to get in his way of impressing the Hell out of her and getting his hands on her. But he's wrong. Miss You Mad is a psychological romance thriller with enough romantic suspense to keep you reading through the edgy parts.
