

Karen is conflicted...and in love. Can she give up everything she's worked so hard for to follow Liwanu and live in his world, a world she could never leave? What if she can't convince him to stay with her? She's already made two bad choices in her life, what if she makes another? This decision is important; there won't be any more do-overs. Karen is in danger and Liwanu can't protect her. Should he trust his chief, and the man within himself, and just take her? Or should he listen to his instincts and let her make the decision. Karen wants him to stay in her world, can he? At least then he'll know he could have a future with her...if he can keep her safe.
