

Not Over (Parker Siblings Series Book 4)

Dustin Parker had life and love in his grasp until the moment she disappeared without a good-bye. He has watched his sisters struggle, fall in love, and find a happily ever after. He thought it was his turn, but fate had other plans. Leaving the family again, this time to attend school across the country, he will play soccer, and try to keep her off his mind. All of a sudden in walks someone to occupy his bed but not his heart. Why is he promising her forever?

Teryn Hall has suffered years of abuse, held a prisoner in her home by the one man who should have nurtured and loved her. Her scars run deep, and when her pain bubbles to the surface she can't control the memories and the anguish. She thought she was doing the right thing when she walked away. She thought he would wait for her. Didn't he promise her forever? Right when she thinks things are back on track, the news of Dustin moving on could derail her.

Can love really survive anything?
