EXCERPT “I love you, Mommy.” Elena wrapped her arms around Kelly’s neck, her shoulder digging into Kelly’s throat. “But I still want a daddy.” “There is something you can do.” Elena pulled back, a hopeful expression on her face. “What?” “You can ask Jesus for a daddy.” “Will He give me one?” Kelly lifted a shoulder. “I don’t know. Sometimes He says yes to prayers, and sometimes He says no. And sometimes, like Mommy, He says to wait a while. Like when you wanted Sophie to come visit, and I said not until tomorrow.” Elena nodded thoughtfully. “I’ll ask Jesus lots.” A vision of Elena running around the playground at school and shouting out her prayers popped into Kelly’s mind. “There’s another rule. I’ve told you that you can talk to Jesus anytime, anywhere, and He’ll always hear you. But this is a special kind of prayer, and you’re only allowed to pray it out loud at bedtime. Otherwise it has to be a quiet prayer in your head.” “Why?” “It just does. And one more thing.” Elena sighed. “What?” “Remember when we talked about pinky promises?” Kelly held up her hand and stretched out her little finger. “I want you to pinky promise me you won’t talk to Sophie’s daddy about it. That you won’t ask him to be your daddy.” “I don’t want to pinky promise that.” “I need you to.” “But—” “Elena, please obey me.” How could such a small body come up with a sigh the size of an elephant? Elena twined her finger around Kelly’s. “Pinky promise.” Scroll up and grab your copy of PINKY PROMISE!
