

The last thing Haley Reese wants to do is head home to Houston. It's been years since she pursued a career in music and mentoring at the annual Breathe Music Festival makes her feel like a fraud. But after sharing a plane ride with her idol, rock star Oliver Cabrera, things start looking up. Oliver hasn't called any place home since he started touring professionally in his teens. With his career just about over, he decides to accept an invitation to mentor at the Breathe Music Festival. Helping Haley just might be the distraction Oliver needs.
