

A Devils First: Book One

Why cant anything go right for once? Ive been in this business for three years, and Ive yet to successfully steal a human soul? I dont think I am cut out for this, but what choice do I have? All Zevira--a young female devil--wanted was a life of freedom, a life where she could find love with another devil. Instead, her fate, determined at her birth, was to become a soul stealer--a devil who takes souls from humans through seduction. To make matters worse, her boss, the high lord, is losing his patience. He gives her one last task to prove herself. To capture the souls of three humans.If she fails, its her soul that will be taken away. But when she sets off to complete the task, and runs into a human named Alex, her world starts to become even more complicated. Can Zevira complete the task assigned to her, or will she betray herself to her gradually increasing feelings for Alex? 7000+ Words, a Short Story This is the first part of three parts of a series of serials.
