

The Five Stages of Falling in Love

Elizabeth Carlson is living in the pits of hell- also known as grief. Her husband of eight years, the father of her four children and the love of her life, died from cancer. Gradys prognosis was grim, even from the start, but Liz never gave up hope he would survive. How could she, when he was everything to her? Six months later, she is trying to pick up the pieces of her shattered life and get the kids to school on time. Both seem impossible. Everything seems impossible these days. When Ben Tyler moves in next door, she is drowning in sorrow and pain, her children are acting out, and the house is falling apart. She has no time for curious new friends or unwanted help, but Ben gives her both. And he doesnt just want to help her with yard work or cleaning the gutters. Ben wants more from Liz. More than shes capable of ever giving again. As Liz mourns her dead husband and works her way through the five stages of grief, she finds theres more of her heart to give than she thought possible. And as new love takes hold, she peels away the guilt and heartache, and discovers theres more to life than death.
