

Kate Douglas captivated readers when she introduced them to the Chanku through both the Wolf Tales and Spirit Wild series, and she's kept them reading and waiting for this long-awaited finale to the much-loved Demon Lovers series. Addie, Jett, and Locan have forged a bond like no other. Through their loving, passionate, and erotic relationship they have built a family and strengthened their skills as demon hunters. But in this final installment to their story, the three are going to be challenged in a way they've never been challenged before. As the team awaits their next call to action they discover that their beloved hellhound Azrael is in danger, and while Addie, Jett, and Locan would like nothing better than to jump in and save him, it's a fight the hellhound has to face on his own. In a battle between demon and hellhound, the stakes are nothing less than Azrael's soul and the team's future, and it will take all of Azrael's strength to free himself from an eternal nightmare and take his rightful place as a permanent member of the demon fighting team.
