

Wanting Him (Needing You #2)

Can a person really fall in love in only a few short months? Does distance really make the heart grow fonder? Natalie, a confident strong individual who has had her fair share of pain and loss has found the one thing that truly makes her happy, Parker Thomas. Parker is living his dream, on tour with his bandmates, King Dread. Hes making a name for himself and his band, wanting nothing more than for Natalie to join him on this new adventure. Unfortunately due to life, Nat cannot go with him. Between going to school, working, and taking care of her sister, her plate is full. During the months apart, Nat and Parker are able to grow as individuals and reveal who they really are, and whats important. Though distance is hard on both of them; there are people out there who want nothing more than a piece of Parker and a piece of Nat. When they are put to the test, will they be able to prove their love for one another or will others step in and take their place? **This contains graphic sexual content and situations suitable for readers 18**
