

On the run with a tuxedoed guy with Trouble written all over his gorgeous face, Cassie Dane must ask herself: is this the real thing, or it is just another stopping point in a long run of bad luck and worse choices? Only the night before, Denny McGowan had burst into her life, a handsome stranger in a tux, dripping wet from the rain and with nothing more to his name than the roll of hundred dollar bills in his back pocket. Since then, Cassie has been held at gunpoint and fled in a stolen car and now, to complicate matters further, she might just be falling in love. But how can she trust a complete stranger like Denny, and what is he really after? And with two thwarted gunmen on their tail, will they be able to get away for long enough to make plans? Bad Company: the much-anticipated sequel to Trading Down, and the second part of Winner Takes All, the steamy new bad boy trilogy from the author of bestselling romantic thriller The Object of His Desire.
