

At what point do you stop wishing on stars? Hannah Mills was content in her life. She was the personal assistant to best-selling author Melissa Loring. But now Melissa was engaged to the famous actor Will Martinsson and they were traveling around the world based on his filming and interview schedule. Hannah loved traveling with them, but she didn't want to run into Royce Rivers, Will's co-star and friend. The same man she called friend, until one night, things went too far. She tried as hard as she could to keep him out of her heart and body, but she knew if she saw him again, she'd lose the battle, and she couldn't allow herself to fall for him. Royce Rivers grew up in the spotlight, a second-generation actor. When he was younger, he did everything and anything to rebel, becoming a typical Hollywood statistic on bad behavior. It took many years, but he cleaned his act up and was at a point in his life when he could try and enjoy it. Then one Miss Hannah Mills walked into his life and nothing was the same. He knew she was keeping something from him. If there was one thing he was familiar with, it was demons, and she had hers. What started as fun and games with a new friend, soon changed to something more. Royce wanted nothing more than to slay the demons which keeps her away from him so they could have their happily ever after. When two people battling demons meet and can no longer deny their feelings, there is nothing they can do but see if their wish comes true.
